Winter Baseball League.

At a meeting of the Honolulu Winter Baseball League held last evening, Mr. Hampton was chosen umpire for the rest of the season to succeed Cy Russell, who returns on the Ventura for San Francisco. The Honolulu Iron Works team entered a protest on the umpire's decision in forfeiting a game with the Punahou; but the League, after much deliberation, upheld the decision.

One day as a certain schoolmaster, with aspect fierce and cane upraised, was about to punish one of his pupils, the little fellow said, quite innocently, and doubtless with some vague recollection of a visit to the dentist, "Please, sir, may I have gas?"—Pittsburg Bulletin.

OLD PLANTERS

THE HAWAIIAN GAZETTE CO. HAS, AT CONSIDERABLE EXPENSE, SUCCEEDED IN COMPLETING A LIMITED NUMBER OF SETS OF PLANTERS' MONTHLIES FROM VOL. I OF 1882 UP TO THE FIRST OF THE PRESENT YEAR.

OF THE EARLIER NUMBERS, LONG SINCE OUT OF PRINT, MANY ISSUES WERE ENTIRELY EXHAUSTED, MAKING IT NECESSARY TO RESET AND REPRINT ALL SUCH NUMBERS, THUS ADDING MATERIALLY TO THE COST. THIS EXTRA EXPENSE WAS MORE THAN JUSTIFIED, HOWEVER, BY THE VALUABLE NATURE OF MUCH OF THE MATTER CONTAINED IN THESE OLD NUMBERS, MATTER THAT CANNOT BE FOUND ELSEWHERE THAN IN THESE BOOKS AND THAT IS VALUABLE REALLY BEYOND PRICE TO THE PLANTATION INTERESTS. THESE PLANTERS ARE UNIFORMLY BOUND IN FULL LAW SHEEP, GIVING THEM AN ATTRACTIVE APPEARANCE IN ADDITION TO THEIR DURABILITY.

ANYONE DESIRING A COMPLETE SET, OR ANY PART OF A SET, WOULD DO WELL TO COMMUNICATE WITH THE GAZETTE CO. AT AN EARLY DATE, AS THERE ARE BUT VERY FEW SETS AVAILABLE AT THE PRESENT TIME, AND IN ORDER TO COMPLETE MORE SETS IT WILL BE NECESSARY TO RESET AND PRINT MORE BACK NUMBERS, THUS INCREASING THE COST STILL MORE.

CARPENTER REINSTATED

The Governor Does Not Permit a Political Dismissal.

There is no explanation needed for the following letter dictated by Governor Carter yesterday, though after it was sent the Governor emphatically repeated its tenor to an Advertiser reporter. "Efficiency is the only test with me for any man in the employ of the Government," Governor Carter said. The letter follows:

"Oct. 3, 1904.
"C. S. Holloway, Esq., Superintendent of Public Works, Territory of Hawaii."

"Dear Sir: I have just been informed that a carpenter named James Lingman, under Mr. Howland, has been removed from office because he is a Democrat, and this was presumed to be done under orders emanating from me.

"Not only have I never given such an order as that during my administration, but I will not tolerate such an action, and if such an order has been given, I will ask you to countermand the same and reinstate Mr. Lingman."

"Very sincerely yours,
(Sgd.) "G. R. CARTER,
"Governor."

Y. W. C. A. HAS BENEFIT

Charley's Aunt To Be Repeated This Evening.

Charley's Aunt is booked for a third and last performance this evening at the Opera House, this time as a benefit for the Y. W. C. A., which, like many other institutions, is in need of funds and hopes to realize expectations in securing a full house this evening. The members of the Association have been hard at work selling tickets which are exchangeable for reserved seats at Wall, Nichols Co., where the regular seat sale is open.

The play will be given with all due elaboration of detail as on the preceding nights and so marked was the artistic success of the first production that Manageress Brown of the Y. W. C. A. confidently expects a packed theater. The Honolulu Symphony Orchestra will act as music makers for the occasion. The curtain will, as before, rise at 8:15 and fall at 10:30.

Reduced prices of $1 for all down stairs and 75 cents for the balcony have been arranged and the opportunity to enjoy a splendid evening's entertainment thus brought within the reach of all.

REPUBLICANS RALLY THE KAKAOKO VOTERS

making a mistake because he requires a man to give him his resignation when he takes office. That is proper. Carter can't afford to lose control of the men whose acts make or mar his administration."

Mr. Towse spoke for Prince Kuhio and gave reasons why he should be returned to Congress. To send an untitled man would be to begin the work all over again, and Hawaii would suffer."

ACHI RIPS DEMOCRATS.

Senator W. C. Achi said that the Democrats are reported to be stating that if they get into power they will relieve the poor man of the tax burdens, thus meaning, no doubt, that they would make the rich man pay instead. Such a law the speaker said would be unconstitutional. "The Democrats," he said, "are merely saying these things as a part of the deception and fraud they are spreading among the voters. All the Democrats seem to be saying is—and it is a falsehood by the way—that Governor Carter is trying to increase the taxes of the poor people. What the Home Rulers are saying does not now amount to anything, so they need not be considered."

"What has the administration been doing? Building school houses from one end of the islands to the other. What is that for? To educate all our young people, those that come after us. The Republicans passed appropriations for the repair of roads, and who is reaping the benefits? All of you."

"There was $300,000 appropriated for the deepening of the harbor for the admission of the largest vessels that are planned to call here. Who will derive the benefit of this work in time? You Hawaiians. Can the Democrats or Home Rulers say that there is anything wrong with that? It is for you, for your maintenance."

"So I say to you support the administration by voting the Republican ticket. Carter is the man to uphold the laws and enforce them. Every poor man here can go to the Governor and see him personally and receive the same treatment from him that he would give to a rich man."

Carlos Long made a short speech in favor of himself and the full Representative ticket, and then the greatest speaker of the evening was introduced.

THE HAWAIIAN GLADSTONE.

Chairman Quinn introduced John Gandall of Kaula as the Gladstone of Hawaii, and some one added, "The Hawaiian oratorical Shakespeare."

At the mention of Gandall's name the Hawaiians crowded around the speaker's stand. In beautiful language, with his expressions teeming of the old Hawaii, and with eloquent gestures, Gandall had the auditors listening with open mouths to his first words. From humor to pathos, and from seriousness to facetiousness, the speaker carried his audience, until they broke into thunderous applause. Those who readily understand the ordinary Hawaiian language have to give steady attention to the speeches of John Gandall, for his style and expressions hark back to the days of the olden kings and chiefs.

The orator began by relating a legend and so ingeniously worked this into a comparison to suit political exigencies that the audience for an instant failed to grasp his intention, and then they applauded long and heartily. In a magnificent comparison of the Republican, Democratic and Home Rule parties the speaker used the following illustration: In the days of Kamehameha his warriors used sling shots. An enemy came up within distance of Kamehameha to sling a stone at him, but a chief intervened. At another time another enemy did the same thing and a chief intervened again. The third time when a chief spoke to Kamehameha of the circumstance he said to the king: "Why do you stand out and fight now? This is a conquered enemy and they are not worth fighting." This, he said, was the same thing at the present time, for the Home Rulers were now a vanquished party.

KUHIO AGAIN ROUTS KUMALAE AND NOTLEY

Delegate Kuhio had an impromptu battle of words with Home Rule candidate Notley and his henchman at Wai'alua on Saturday night, the conflict lasting until early Sunday morning. According to the best reports of the encounter Prince Kuhio routed Kumalae and Notley, as he had done in his initial speech at Hilo, at which time Kumalae was so thoroughly vanquished that he had to retire from the crowd.

Kuhio remained at Haleiwa over Saturday instead of coming to Honolulu to speak at the Aala Park meeting. He heard that Notley, Kumalae, the Kahalellos and others were to speak on Saturday at Wai'alua and endeavor to undo what he had done by addressing the people there the night before.

The Home Rulers saw Kuhio in the crowd and kept their meeting going until 1 a. m. Sunday. When they finally finished, Kuhio came forward and occupied the rostrum for two hours. Notley and the others reshaped the same old story about Kuhio having introduced a bill in Congress to make English the official language in the Territory as against the Hawaiian language. This is one of the principal arguments used against Kuhio by the Home Rulers.

When Kuhio took the stand he sailed into the Home Rulers and put up an excellent argument in defense of his bill and made his meaning so clear that Kumalae interposed some denials. He intimated in one case that Kuhio was a liar.

Kuhio instantly demanded that he retract his words and address him as a gentleman. Kumalae came back quickly with the rejoinder that he didn't mean it.

When Notley took a hand in the debate, Kuhio questioned him as to his life. He asked that if for taking part in the overthrow of the Kalakaua constitution in '97, whether he had not joined the forces opposing the king. Notley answered in the affirmative. Kuhio asked if he had not been rewarded by being given the post of Collector of Customs at Hilo, and received an affirmative answer. Kuhio asked if he had not left that position because he had been found short in his accounts, and as a result his father had disinherited him. Notley made no reply to the latter inquiries.

BROWN STRIPS HIMSELF OF MANY VOTES

The action of Cecil Brown, who announces himself as an "Independent Republican," in aligning himself with the Democrats on Saturday evening, and agreeing further to speak from Democratic platforms throughout the campaign, took from him a number of voters who had declared themselves in his favor. If street talk is to be relied on Brown made a serious political error and it is believed that true-blue Republicans will now let him severely alone.

SHAW RESIGNS FROM THE FIFTH'S TICKET

James Shaw, one of the Fifth District Republican candidates for the lower house of the legislature, tendered his resignation to the Executive Committee yesterday. In his letter Mr. Shaw stated that he had been regularly nominated on the ticket but that since the nomination there had been a good deal of criticism not favorable to him, and therefore he felt that he should resign from the ticket for the benefit of the Republican party, it appearing from the criticism that he was injuring the ticket. He asked the Executive Committee to take action as soon as possible to choose his successor.

Chairman Vida of the Fifth District Committee stated yesterday that under the rules three days' notice has to be given for calling a meeting of the committee, and therefore no action by the district committee would be taken before Wednesday night. The Executive Committee will meet at noon today to consider Mr. Shaw's letter of resignation.

The resignation of Mr. Shaw was brought about through the efforts of the party managers, and earnest efforts are also being made to have Mr. Mahelona resign for the same reason assigned by Mr. Shaw, "for the benefit of the party."
